

Friday, February 9th, March 1st and 15th, April 5th and 26th, and May 10th	10:30 AM	Refining Your Writing for adults and teens led by Joe Marren, Emeritus Professor of Communication at Buffalo State University. We are able to communicate; the trick is to discover how to refine our writing skills for our own enjoyment or an intended audience. This class consists of 6 Friday sessions.
Monday, February 12 Monday, February 26 3rd date TBD by class.	6:15 PM	Introduction To Watercolor Painting , taught by local artist Nancy Peterson. You will learn many water color techniques to be applied to your own paintings. Watercolor paper, three water color paint tubes and a brush come with the cost of the classes. A series of three classes lasting two hours is $85.00. Bring your calendar to the first session.
Tuesday, February 20	6:30 PM	Round Spring Door Sign taught by Patty Sachse. Make a 7 in. diameter sign to hang on your door or wall. Many design choices available. No experience needed, All supplies provided. Cost $15. Children $10 with a paid adult.
Thursday, March 21	6:30 PM	Beginner Jewelry Making Class taught by Susie Adamucci. This class will include stringing basics and basic wire work as you create your own bracelet and a pair of earrings. Cost $15.
Monday, April 22	6:30 PM	Fabulous Fungi Class taught by Kathy Goodrow. Since the pandemic began, mushrooms have emerged as a strong decorating trend, symbolizing resilience, renewal, and strength. You will create a gorgeous faux velvet mushrooms on a wood base with faux greenery & moss. Approximately 6-8 inches tall. Cost $25
Wednesday, May 22	6:30 PM	Glass Resin Art Class for a window or wall taught by Patty Sachse. Choose between a cardinal, flamingo, wave or palm tree/ beach scene. All materials provided including a white or black 12 x 12 frame. Cost $50.
Wednesday, May 29th	6:30 PM	Spring Flowers with Stitch: Beginner's Embroidery taught by Tami Fuller. Learn the basics of embroidery and how to use two basic stitches to create a bouquet of spring flowers using whatever colors you would like. For beginners or those with basic embroidery knowledge. Cost $35
Thursday, June 20	6:30 PM	"The Haunted Hills": A Paranormal History of The Town of Aurora The paranormal is a broad field. It would shock most Western New Yorkers to know how well represented the Town of Aurora is within the paranormal realm. Who better to survey its local mysteries for us than author Mason Winfield, upstate New York's "supernatural historian". No charge - free will donation accepted. Registration required - limited space.

Additional classes and programs are advertised on our Facebook page, in the East Aurora Advertiser, the Springville Journal and at our library.

Type to enter text